

ALLENTOWN CENTRAL CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

Cordially invites you to a group presentation discussing

THE FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF AN ACCHS EDUCATION

Tuesday, March 10, 2020, 6:00 – 7:30 PM

ACCCHS MEDIA CENTER (FORMER LIBRARY)

TOPICS INCLUDE:

- The cost and payment for a private education
- 2020-2021 Tuition and Fees
- The role of FACTS
- Financial aid based on need
- Merit scholarships
- External resources to lower educational costs
- Miscellaneous costs in addition to tuition/fees
- Student account balances
- Important financial dates for families
- Finance department personnel

This is an informative presentation to discuss the financial aspect of an Allentown Central Catholic education. Some of the most important material covered will be how to apply for financial aid, how the financial aid process works, available scholarships, ways to lower your educational costs, payment methods, preparing for the cost of a private high school education, and much more.

Be prepared with your questions...we are here to help make an ACCCHS education affordable for your family!

Find out how you can become a part of our Viking Family!

RSVP: Cynthia Fenstermaker, cfenstermaker@acchs.info or 610-437-4601, EXT. 149